2. PURPOSE OF A CONFLICT OF INTEREST MANAGEMENT POLICY

In terms of Section 3A(2) every provider, other than a representative, must adopt, maintain and implement a conflict of interest management policy which complies with the provisions of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 37 of 2002.

In terms of the General Code of Conduct a provider and a representative must avoid, and where this is not possible, mitigate any conflict of interest between the provider and a client, or a representative of the provider and his, her or its clients.

The FSP and its representatives are committed towards acting within the best interests of our clients and to avoid all conflict of interests in relation to the provision of financial services. Where we are unable to avoid a conflict of interest, we will take all necessary precautions to ensure that any actual or potential conflict of interest is mitigated and adequately disclosed to our clients.

In order to ensure the continued demonstration of our commitment, management has adopted a Conflict of Interest Management policy to provide for the effective management of any actual or potential conflicts of interest that may arise wholly or partially, in relation to the provision of financial services.

The purpose of the Conflict of Interest Management Policy is therefore to:

- establish internal controls and mechanisms towards the identification of conflicts of interest
- establish measures to avoid conflicts of interest, and where avoidance is not possible, to provide the reasons therefore
- establish measures to ensure that any unavoidable conflicts of interest are mitigated
- establish measures to ensure the proper disclosure of any conflicts of interest
- establish processes, procedures and internal controls to facilitate compliance with the policy
- communicate the consequences of non-compliance with the policy

3. IDENTIFYING A CONFLICT OF INTEREST

3.1 INDIVIDUAL IDENTIFICATION

The primary responsibility for the identification of a conflict of interest rests with the representatives, employees and individual members of the governing body of the FSP.

Throughout the process of rendering a financial service to a client, a representative must apply his or her mind to answering the following questions:

- is there any situation that exists that influences the objective performance of my obligations to my client?
- is there any situation that exists that prevents me from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to my client?
- is there any situation that exists that prevents me from acting in the best interest of my client?

If the answer to all three questions is “no”, then there is no conflict of interest associated with the financial service and the representative may proceed.

If the answer to any one of the three questions is “yes”, the representative must proceed to answer the following additional questions:

- is the situation caused as a result of an actual or potential relationship with a third party? (see definition of “third party”)
- is the situation caused by an actual or potential financial or ownership interest? (see definition of “financial interest” and “ownership interest”)

If the answer to any one of these questions is “yes”, an actual or potential conflict of interest will have been identified.

3.2 FURTHER GUIDANCE ON IDENTIFYING A CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The definition of a Conflict of Interest incorporates the following terminology:

- influence the “objective performance” of his, her or its obligations to that client;

- prevent a provider or representative from rendering an “unbiased and fair financial service” to that client;
- including but not limited to a “financial interest”.

It is generally understood that the word “objective” refers to a situation where an individual’s personal feelings or opinions are completely removed from the equation. The “objective performance” of an FSP or representative’s obligations therefore implies a situation where financial services are rendered without any untoward influences.

The word “bias” or “biased” is understood to mean a form of prejudice towards a particular person or viewpoint, whereas the word “fair” or “fairness” indicates a situation of just circumstances or being treated on an equal footing. An unbiased financial service therefore implies a financial service that does not lend itself to a particular persuasion, where no reasonable justification for such persuasion can be found. Similarly, a fair financial service implies a situation where the same conclusion or outcome will consistently present itself given the exact same set of circumstances.

Subject to section 3A(1)(c) of the General Code of Conduct, the FSP and its representatives may only receive or offer the following “financial interest” from or to a “third party”:

- commission authorised under the Long-term Insurance Act, Short-term Insurance Act or under the Medical Schemes Act
- fees authorised under the Long-term Insurance Act, the Short-term Insurance Act or the Medical Schemes Act
- fees for the rendering of a financial service in respect of which commission or fees referred to above is not paid, if:
 - and the amount, frequency, payment method and recipient of those fees and details of the services that are to be provided by the FSP or its representatives in exchange for the fees are specifically agreed into writing; and
 - those fees may be stopped at the discretion of that client
- fees or remuneration for the rendering of a service to a third party,
- an immaterial financial interest (subject to any other law)
- a financial interest, not referred to above for which a consideration, fair value or remuneration that is reasonably commensurate to the value of the financial interest, is paid by that FSP or representative at the time of receipt thereof

The FSP will not offer any financial interest to its representatives:

- that is determined with reference to the quantity of business secured for the FSP without also giving due regard to the delivery of fair outcomes for clients; or
- giving preference to a specific product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product supplier to a client; or
- giving preference to a specific product of a product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product of that product supplier to a client.

Representative incentives

The FSP will not offer any financial interest to its key individual/s or representative/s:

- that is determined with reference to the quantity of business secured for the FSP without also giving due regard to the delivery of fair outcomes for clients; or
- for giving preference to a specific product supplier where more than one supplier can be recommended to a client; or
- for giving preference to a specific product of a supplier where more than one product of that supplier can be recommended.

8. ANNEXURE A: IDENTIFIED CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND MITIGATION MEASURES

In terms of the Conflicts of Interest Management Policy, the Board of the FSP has identified the following conflicts of interest, the reasons for the unavoidability of said conflicts of interest and the specific steps that will be taken to mitigate the conflict of interest to clients:

The identified conflicts of interests

- 1) The recommendation of investments into the Stonewood AM Ci Funds

Potential conflict of interest: The FSP carries out activities as an asset manager. The FSP is the specialist investment management business that is responsible for the investment management of the Stonewood AM Ci Funds. Furthermore, certain Representatives of the FSP are members of the FSP investment committee and may be entitled to an annual investment management fee, financial interest or ownership interest in relation to investments placed in the Stonewood AM Ci Funds. A potential conflict of interest may arise where recommendations are made by representatives of the FSP in relation to investments in the Stonewood AM Ci Funds.

Policy: To minimise this conflict, representatives are not obliged/restricted to use the Stonewood AM Ci Funds.

- 2) The acceptance of invitations to functions, incentive trip and conferences

Potential conflict of interest: A potential conflict of interest is possible if the sole result of the acceptance of any invitation would be an attempt by a product of service provider to attract business.

Policy: As a point of departure, Key Individuals and Representatives of the FSP are not permitted to accept any invitation that has as its sole purpose an incentive to transfer assets to the applicable provider.

Incentive trips: For purposes of this Policy, incentive trips are defined as any trip, whether local or foreign that has its sole objective of incentivising the FSP to place investments with the relevant product or service provider.

Policy: No Key Individual or Representative is entitled to accept any invitation to any incentive trip.

Functions: Functions are defined as marketing events that are organised by product or service providers in an attempt to build relationships with their clients, where the event is held in the Republic of South Africa and does not include the funding of accommodation and travel.

Policy: Key Individuals and Representatives are entitled to accept invitations to functions; however they are cautioned against accepting more than 2 functions per year from any one product or service provider.

Conference: Conferences are defined as any event that is sponsored by a product or service provider, whether in or outside of the Republic of South Africa, in terms of which the applicable Key Individual or Representative will be exposed to speakers and/or workshops and/or information that could ultimately improve the knowledge base of the business and benefit the FSP's clients.

Policy: Key Individuals and Representatives are entitled to accept invitations to conferences, provided that the prior written approval of the Board has been obtained and provided that the FSP funds all travel and accommodation requirements associated with such trip.

- 3) The use of the Stonewood Global Adventurous Fund as an offshore building block within the Stonewood AM Ci Funds

Potential conflict of interest: Stonewood AM is part of the Stonewood Group and one of its subsidiaries, Stonewood Wealth Management is a specialist investment management business that is responsible for the investment management of the Stonewood Global Adventurous Fund.

Policy: A zero-rated fee class of the Stonewood Global Adventurous Fund will be utilised to negate this conflict.

Reasons why the conflict of interest is unavoidable

- 1) The recommendation of investments into the Stonewood AM Ci Funds

This strategy is unavoidable and in the interests of investors for the following reasons:

- a) It is the only efficient way that the FSP (or FSP group) can actively manage its clients' investments on an ongoing basis given:
 - The number of clients
 - The geographical spread of the clients
 - The number of investment platforms utilised
- b) It is the only way to ensure that clients in similar risk profiles are managed on the same basis without timing and investment constraint differences.
- c) It is the only way to ensure that discretionary management does not result in CGT implications for investors.
- d) It is the only way of formally ensuring that investors have the benefit of greater transparency in the manner in which their investments are managed and the quantum of the costs that are levied.
- e) The only way to have access to specialised, dedicated asset management expertise and investment research on an ongoing cost-effective basis.

- f) It's the only way to effectively implement the predetermined investment process without the administrative constraints of Lisps (capped funds, funds not on platforms, timing of switches).
- 2) The acceptance of invitations to functions, incentive trip and conferences
- a) The attendance by the FSP at functions and conferences is the only way for the FSP to remain informed with regard to industry matters, investment related matters, market conditions, product development initiatives and compliance. This is ultimately for the benefit of clients.
- b) It is the best way for the FSP to maintain relationships with key service providers for the benefit of clients.
- 3) The use of the Stonewood Global Adventurous Fund as an offshore building block within the Stonewood AM Ci Funds
- a) It is the only way to access a zero-rated offshore fund.
- b) The scale and international presence of Stonewood Wealth Management enables further cost efficiencies for other building blocks within the Stonewood AM Ci Funds. This is ultimately for the benefit of clients adding to cost efficiencies.

Specific steps that will be taken by the FSP to mitigate the conflict of interest

In addition to the general mitigation steps specified in the policy, the FSP will take the following specific steps to mitigate the potential risk to clients:

- 1) The recommendation of investments into the Stonewood AM Ci Funds

In light of the fact that this investment strategy is in the best interest of clients, it may continue provided that:

- a) Full disclosure must be given to investors with regard to:
- The fact that the FSP has an interest in the product
 - The nature of the interest and full disclosure of fees earned
 - The nature of the product and all relevant details relating to the product
- b) Institute a pricing policy that will confirm the following:
- No fee increases will take place without prior notice to clients.
 - No performance fees will be levied by the FSP.
 - All rebates will be re-invested back into the funds.
 - As far as possible the aggregated scale will be utilised to negotiate favourable fee deals with underlying managers for the benefit of the client.
- c) The FSP must ensure that it will only recommend the in-house solutions where this is in the interests of the client.

- 2) The acceptance of invitations to functions, incentive trip and conferences

Please see "policy" statements under the section headed "Identification of conflicts of interest" above.

- 3) The use of the Stonewood Global Adventurous Fund as an offshore building block within the Stonewood AM Ci Funds

Please see "policy" statements under the section headed "Identification of conflicts of interest" above.
